

E Max Langham 39, head librarian at Albion College, Albion, Michigan and former resident of Indiana Conty, Pa died suddenly early friday afternoon, Sept 4, at Foot Hospital Jackson Michigan, after suffering a heart attack at Big Portage Lake, where he and his family were vacationing.

He was the son of Charlotte Knupp Langham, New Kensington and the late Max R Langham; was born 22 Feb, 1925 in Barnesboro, Pa and graduated from high school at Arnold Pa.

He was a member of the Albion First Methodist church and the Albion Rotary Club, was a member of several library organizations and had headed the college secton of Nebraska Library Assoc, He was a member of the American Assoc of University Professors and held a private pilot's license.

Mr. Langham married the former Miss Myrtle Smith on 7 Nov, 1947 at Tarentum. Surviving are his wife, mentioned above; two sons, Edward m, Jr., 16, Matthew, 17 mos; a daughter, Charlene 10 his mother, Mrs. Max R. Langham, New Kensington; three brothers, Guiard, A.Smith; John:four sisters; Mrs. Robert (Erla) Piemme, Mrs. Albert (Bonita) Yockey, and Mrs. Joan Domanski, both of new Kensington and Mrs. ralph (Janet) Arlotti of Blawnox.

Interment at Cherry Tree Methodist Church