

Dated 3 March, 1987

Samuel Langham, 85, of 39 Sherman St, Clymer, died Saturday 28 Feb 1987, in Washington General Hospital, Washington, Pa

A son of Jonathan and Dortha Rearick Langham, he was born 8 June 1901 in Susquehanna Twp, Cambria County

Mr. Langham was a member of the congregation of the Bible Baptist Church, Clymer and United brick and Clay Workers of America, local 482 of Clymer;

He was a foreman with Hiram-Swank Refractory of Clymer, retiring in 1967.

Surviving are five children; Dennis, Warren Ohio; Mrs. Ruth Domhoff, Valley City, Ohio; Ronald, Warren, Ohio; Mrs. Richard (Rosemary) Streams, Ellisville, Mo; Jonathan, Wellsburg W.VA; 14 grandchildren 21 great grandchildren

Also by three sisters: Mrs. Herman Hadden, Mr Thomas (Mary Danvir, Mrs Robert(Doothy) Jackson all of New Kensington; a brother, Gerald Commodore RD1

He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary Elizabeth Black Langham 14 Nov, 1986; two brothers and a sister: Emuel Lawrence and Oleda Langham Interment Greenwood Cemetery, Indiana, Pa