

Moorhead—Johns

Albert S. Moorhead, of this place, and Miss Ida L. Johns, of West Wheatfield township, will be married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Johns, this evening at 8. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. W. P. Varner, pastor of the M. E. church, of Bolivar. About 20 guests will be present. The happy couple will leave Thursday morning for Philadelphia and Atlantic City where they will enjoy a honeymoon of two weeks, after which they will return to Indiana where they will make their future home. Both the bride and groom are well known in Indiana. Miss Johns has taught in the public schools of the county for the last three winters and has attended Normal for the past three spring terms. Mr. Moorhead is one of our town boys, having always lived here. He is the junior editor of the Progress, which position he has filled very creditably for the past six years.
