

A. T. MOORHEAD, VETERAN
EDITOR, DIES
SUDDENLY

Death Came Today at 11
O'clock from Neuralgia of the Heart.

AT HIS DESK ON THURSDAY

Had Lived All His Life in This County and Had a Very Wide Acquaintance.

HELD MANY RESPONSIBLE POSITIONS

Alexander Thompson Moorhead, senior editor of the Indiana Progress, died at his home on North Seventh street from neuralgia of the heart this morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Moorhead became ill on Thursday night after having spent the day in his office as usual.

He was a son of the late Alexander Thompson and was born in White township August 23 1833. He was twice married. Early in life he learned the printing business in the office of the Indiana Register.

While serving his apprenticeship he was a member of the Underground railroad, assisting many slaves to liberty. He later engaged in business at Taylorsville, this county, where he resided for a number of years. Locating in Indiana he continued the mercantile business until appointed postmaster, in which position he served terms under Presidents Hayes and

In 1887 he bought the Indiana Progress and was senior editor of the paper at the time of his death. He was a lifelong member of the United Presbyterian church, and had been a member of the session of the First United Presbyterian church of Indiana for many years. He served as superintendent of the Sabbath School of that congregation for more than a quarter of a century.

The deceased was always interested in the affairs of Indiana and at the time of his death was a member of the board of trustees of the Indiana State Normal School. He also served as a member of the committee on Buildings and Care of the Hospital and Sick for the same school. Mr. Moorhead was widely known throughout Indiana and the county and his sudden death came as a severe shock to his host of friends.

He leaves his widow and these children: Howard Moorhead, of Everson; Mrs. W. L. Sansom, of Clarion; Mrs. D. K. Hill, of Leechburg; Albert S. Moorhead, of Indiana; Mrs. C. E. Liniger, of Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Howard M. Fair, of Uniontown; A. Ralph and Frank E. Moorhead, at home; Mrs. John K. Bralier, of Latrobe; and Dr. Hugh M. Moorhead, of Erie. No definite arrangements have been made for the funeral, although it will probably be held on Sabbath afternoon. 10-18-1912

Funeral of the Late A. T. Moorhead.

The funeral of the late Alexander T. Moorhead, will be held at the family home on N. Seventh street on Monday, Oct. 21, at 1:30, the service being conducted by the Rev. J. Day Brownlee, of the First U. P. church. 10-14-1912

Nov. 4, 1910 —
Mr. A. T. Moorhead and Mrs. Bert Moorhead returned on Thursday from Clarion, where they attended the funeral of Mr. Moorhead's daughter, Mrs. W. A. Niel.

Litigation Between Boro. and Property Holder Cause
Break in Sidewalk.

2-13-11

NUMBER OF FALLS THERE

A. T. Moorhead, the senior editor of the Indiana "Progress," while coming from a meeting of the Normal trustees at the Normal school about 9:15 o'clock on Saturday evening fell just at the Church street corner of the R. A. Thompson property and sustained a bad fracture of the left thigh. John B. DeSantis, who was passing at the time, and Mrs. D. A. Hetrick, who saw Mr. Moorhead fall, went to his assistance. He was taken to Indiana hospital, where he will remain for treatment. The fracture was reduced and everything was done to relieve him. He is resting as well as can be expected today.

Mr. Moorhead is in his 78th year and is the oldest man engaged in active newspaper work in Indiana county. He learned the printing business when a boy on the Indiana American and the Indiana Register, which is now published under the name of the Indiana Progress.

Mr. Moorhead served as postmaster here for eight years and was for some time engaged in the mercantile business at Taylorsville, this county. He has a host of friends who are sorry to learn of his misfortune.

A number of bad falls have occurred at that place the present winter. When the grade for Church street was changed some difficulty occurred between Mr. Thompson and the borough and the result is a very slippery bank from the end of the brick walk to the Church street level.