

Chas. Moorhead

July 16-1927

Following a lingering illness, Charles A. Moorhead, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moorhead, and well-known Indiana resident and coal dealer, died in a Pittsburgh hospital early today. Private funeral services will be conducted at his late residence on School street Monday afternoon. An obituary notice will be given later.

FOR LOCAL YOUNG MAN ON MONDAY

July 19-1927

Many Friends Regret the Passing of Charles A. Moorhead, Who Was Laid to Rest Yesterday; Death of Mrs. Lewis.

OBITUARY NOTES

While the many friends of the deceased expressed sorrow in sympathetic words, by kindly deeds and beautiful floral tributes, private funeral services were conducted for Charles A. Moorhead at his late residence on School street Monday afternoon. He was later laid to rest in Oakland Cemetery. From the effects of a paralytic stroke, which he sustained a year ago, Mr. Moorhead died in a Pittsburgh Hospital early Saturday morning.

The deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moorhead and was born March 14, 1884, in Indiana, where he had always been a resident. He received his education in the local schools and for a time was connected with the Sanborn Map Company. For the last twelve years he had been conducting the coal business, originated by his father. Religiously he was a member of the First United Presbyterian Church, the minister of which, the Rev. J. C. Pinkerton conducted the last obsequies. Socially he was a member of the Cosmopolitan Club. He will long be remembered for his genial personality by his friends and associates.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Helen (Logan) Moorhead, and these children: Alice, Logan, Lintner and Charles. He also leaves these brothers and sisters: D. L. and W. O. Moorhead, both of Indiana; Mrs. S. J. McMains of Leechburg; Mrs. H. V. Smith of Johnstown; Mrs. William H. Brown of Toronto, O.; J. E. Moorhead of West Newton and C. H. Moorhead of Sunbury.