Miss Charlotte Lou Moorhead Marries Donald W. Moorhead In Candlelight Ceremony In First Presbyterian Church

* * *

In the soft flickering light of four candelabra, Miss Charlotte Lou Moorhead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lisle Moorhead of 1140 School Street, exchanged wedding vows with Donald W. Moorhead, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Moorhead of 420 Locust Street, in the First Presbyterian Church of Indiana, Saturday at 2:30 o'clock.

Rev. Harry B. Boyd, D. D., read the service before an altar banked with fern and palms.

Gowned in white marquisette with heavy lace yoke, matching lace cap, and finger tip veil, the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Billie Speelman of Turtle Creek, as maid of honor, wore lavender marquisette.

Miss Louise Moorhead and Miss Patricia Moorhead, sisters of the bridegroom, and Miss Mildred Ann Moorhead, sister of the bride, as bridesmaids, were gowned in blue marquisette, fashioned with off-the-shoulder-bodices, long waists, and hoop skirts. They wore white net mitts and carried nosegays of carnations, surrounded with ruffle trim to match their gowns.

Best man was William R. Cameron. Ushering was Bernard Ganley, C. A. Pennington, Jr., Herbert Wardrop, Jr., L. W. Moorhead, brother of the bride; and Roy Friel.

Accompanied by Mrs. Mac Holstein on the organ, Kenneth Walker sang "Because," Greig's "I Love Thee," and Mallott's "Lord's Prayer."

The bride's mother wore a street length, blue crepe with pink accessories and pink roses. Mother of the bridegroom wore a street-length, light blue, wool crepe with dark blue accessories and yellow roses.

A reception in the church followed the wedding service.

Grandmother of the bride, Mrs. W. B. Wardrop, and grandmother of the bridegroom, Mrs. A. S. Moorhead, poured at the reception table, assisted by an aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. Raymond Moorhead, and an aunt of the bride, Mrs. Geo. Greenwood of Harrisburg.

The couple will make their home after March 15 in Apartment 2-A, 4 Peter Cooper Road, New York City (10), N. Y., where the bridegroom is employed.
