OTHER DEATHS

Old-time friends of the family in particular and the community in general were sorrowed to learn of the death in New York City Saturday morning of Mrs. Gustine Logan Moorhead, aged about 70 years, a resident of Indiana practically all of her life until 10 years ago, when she and her daughter, Miss Phyllis Moorhead, located in New York. The immediate cause of her death was pneumonia, although she had been in ill health for a number of years.

The deceased was the widow of Fred Moorhead, a son of the late A. T. Moorhead of Indiana. During her residence in Indiana she was a member of the Presbyterian Church and took an active part in the several departments of the congregational work. She was also a member of the Singing School, whose yearly reunion gatherings are always of such interest. Her passing is a matter of sincere regret to many. Aside from her daughter, she had no other near relatives.

The body will be brought to Indiana on the 7:20 train Tuesday morning. At ten o'clock there will be a short service at Oakland Cemetery preceding interment.
