

skirt.

A brief veil of ivory silk illusion flowed from a small headpiece of ivory satin brocade.

She carried a nosegay bouquet of yellow miniature roses, daisies and baby's breath tied with ivory satin ribbon.

The maid of honor was Melanie Conrad of Indiana. She wore a floor length gown of colonial floral print fashioned with low round neck, short sleeves, Empire bodice and gathered skirt accented with a red grosgrain sash.

The bridesmaids, Cheri and Patty Moorhead, sisters of the bride, wore gowns styled identical to the maid of honor but accented with yellow grosgrain sashes. The bride's attendants carried nosegay bouquets of daisies, miniature yellow carnations, baby's breath and red stars.

Dean Baumann of Saginaw, Mich., cousin of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Woody Lupton and David Nicholson of Indiana.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The couple is now residing at 330 Shryock Ave., Indiana.
