OBITUARY NOTES

Funeral services for Mrs. Matilda Jane Moorhead, aged 80 years, widow of John C. Moorhead, whose death occurred Tuesday morning after a five weeks' illness from heart trouble and complications, will be conducted at her late residence on School street on Thursday afternoon at half-past one o'clock by the Rev. Chalmers G. Morrow, pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church. Interment will be made in Oakland cemetery.

The end came peacefully, the patient being conscious to the last. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Lintner, the deceased was born in Burrell township, near Blairsville, in August, 1842. She attended the public school in the vicinity of her home and for a time was a student at the old Blairsville Academy. Fifty-four years ago she was united in marriage to John C. Moorhead of Indiana and this place has since been her home. Mrs. Moorhead was a devout Christian woman and with the spiritual qualities with which she was endowed to a large measure, coupled with a love for home and family, she held the friendship of many. Essentially a home person, Mrs. Moorhead devoted her time and efforts for the good of her family and her neighbors.

Mr. Moorhead died six years ago. Surviving are these children: D. Lynn Moorhead, at home; William O. Moorhead and Charles A. Moorhead, all of Indiana; Mrs. S. J. McMains of Leechburg, Mrs. H. V. Smith of Johnstown; J. Edgar Moorhead of West Newton, Calvin H. Moorhead of Sunbury, and Mrs. W. H. Brown of Hilo, Hawaii. She also leaves a brother, J. Porter Lintner, of Blairsville.
