

born at Taylorsville, Indiana County, Pennsylvania, December 30, 1862. He married Gustin Logan on June 10, 1884, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Logan of Indiana, Pennsylvania. They were the parents of one child, Phyllis, who was born at Tawas City, Michigan on June 16, 1885. At this time, Fred was employed by the C. H. Prescott Lumber Co., of Tawas City, Mich., and was to have been taken into the firm as a partner the first of the year, but a tragic accident from a gun exploding in the hands of his best friend caused his untimely death on Christmas Day, 1891. His body was brought to Indiana and laid to rest in the family plot among his ancestors. Mrs. Moorhead died May, 1912.

PHYLLIS MOORHEAD

Phyllis Moorhead, daughter of Frederick and Gustin Logan Moorhead, graduated from Indiana State Teacher's College, Indiana, Pennsylvania. She also graduated from Emerson College of Oratory in Boston, from Columbia Teachers College in New York City and received both B. S. and M. A. degrees. After teaching Speech in New York City High Schools until February 1949, she became Supervisor of Speech Clinics in Academic High Schools for the Board of Education of New York. On September 5, 1938, she