

children, accepting a teaching position in the Western Pennsylvania School for the Blind in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

On June 12, 1952, she married her college classmate, John Bernard Manning of Emsworth, Pa. The marriage took place in the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Albert S. Moorhead of Indiana, Pa. Her present address is 4750 Center Avenue, Pittsburgh 13, Pennsylvania.

MARTHA EVANGELINE MOORHEAD

Martha Evangeline Moorhead, daughter of Alexander Thompson and Margaret A. Rankin Moorhead, was born at Indiana, Pennsylvania on November 4, 1871. She graduated from the Indiana High Schools and was a student of Indiana State Normal Schools, afterwards entering and completing the commercial course of the Curry Institute, Pittsburgh in 1891. Immediately after graduation, she accepted a position with W. W. Lawrence & Company, paint manufacturers, as stenographer. On September 12, 1904, she married Clarence R. Lininger of Pittsburgh, Pa., at the home of her parents in Indiana.

In 1910, because of the death of her sister, Sara Moorhead Neill, she and Mr. Lininger adopted the youngest daughter of Sara and William A. Neill, Sara Evangeline Neill. On Octo-