

Progress", and his weekly letters were read with great interest throughout the county. On August 13, 1913, he married Anna Marguerite Daugherty of Indiana, Pennsylvania. One child was born to them, a son, Alexander Ralph Moorhead, Jr. Mr. Moorhead died October 31, 1942 at his home in Indiana and his body rests in the family lot in Oakland Cemetery, Indiana, Penna.

ALEXANDER RALPH MOORHEAD, JR.

Alexander Ralph Moorhead, Jr., son of Alexander Ralph and Marguerite Daugherty Moorhead, was born July 2, 1918 in Indiana, Pennsylvania. He married Dorothy Eleanor Riefmiller of Homer City, Pennsylvania on October 21, 1938. Ralph served in the United States Navy from May 1940 to September 1945. He was an aircraft radioman with a squadron in Greenland, Newfoundland, and then aboard the U. S. Quincy during the invasion of southern France. He then returned to the states and taught Radar for a year in Beaufort, South Carolina. He has an Air Medal for Anti-Submarine Patrol Duty.

Ralph, Jr. has always been interested in radio and has had his own amateur station W30TN, since he was sixteen years of age. He also enjoys flying and has a private pilot's license and his own plane. The children and Ralph have spent many happy hours in the air and he is