

WILLIAM MORRISON SANSOM

William Morrison Sansom, son of Charles Leader and Sara Minerva Morrison Sansom was born April 24, 1920 at Clarion, Pennsylvania. He graduated from Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. During World War II he served as a co-pilot with Pan-American Airways on war contracts for the United States Government in Africa, the Near East and other countries. Later he was based in Rio De Janeiro for three years. He is now chief co-pilot with Pan-American Airways, based at Idlewild Airport. His present address is 6 Front Drive, Huntington Station, Long Island, New York. He married Mildred Elnor Nash of Atlantic City, New Jersey. Three children were born to them:

William Lawrence Sansom born August 13, 1946.

Robert Charles Sansom born May 1, 1948.

Carol Jean Sansom born June 10, 1950.

MARY MOORHEAD SANSOM

Mary Moorhead Sansom, daughter of Mary Morrow McKee Sansom and William Leader Sansom was born at Brookville, Pennsylvania, February 28, 1884. She graduated from Clarion State Teachers College 1904, Allegheny College, 1914. Kappa Alpha Theta and Phi Beta Kappa. On June 20, 1914, she was united in marriage to