

Olin Clark Jones. They have one child, Mary Virginia Jones (Hyde). Mr. Jones graduated from Allegheny College, 1907, from Boston University School of Theology 1910, and received his Doctor of Divinity degree from Mt. Union College in 1924 and from Allegheny College 1933. During World War I Mr. Jones was Camp Religious Director of Y. M. C. A., Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, 1917, Chaplain of Machine Gun Battalion, 6th Division, with A. E. F. in France 1918 and 1919; Chaplain of Cleveland Regiment of Ohio National Guard 1920. Mr. Jones has held pastorates in Methodist Churches in New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio. At the present time they reside in Amboy, Illinois.

MARY VIRGINIA JONES

Mary Virginia Jones, daughter of Mary Moorhead Sansom and Olin Clark Jones was born September 11, 1918, at Cleveland, Ohio. She graduated from Calumet High School, Chicago in 1933 and from Allegheny College, Meadville, Pennsylvania in 1937. She then did Graduate Study at Northwestern University. She was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta and Phi Beta Kappa Sororities.

On May 2, 1942 she married William Stewart Hyde of Volant, Pennsylvania. Mr. Hyde is a graduate of Allegheny College (1936) and Har-