

Ramona Moorhead Bride Of John Manning

The home of Mrs. Albert S. Moorhead of South Seventh street was the scene of a very pretty wedding Thursday morning, when her granddaughter, Miss Ramona Moorhead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Moorhead of Fisher avenue, became the bride of John Manning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manning of Emsworth.

The single-ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Stillman A. Foster, a former pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church, assisted by Dr. James K. Blackwood.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an ice blue faille suit with hat of matching straw and carried a Colonial bouquet of gardenias and rosebuds.

Miss Helen Davis of Indiana as maid-of-honor, chose a suit of navy silk with white accessories. Her bouquet was pink carnations. Robert E. Vey of Pittsburgh was best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the Thompson Tea Room, South Seventh street.

After a honeymoon spent at Eagles Mere Lake, Pocono Mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Manning will be at home to their friends at Center Avenue Apartments, 4750 Center avenue, Pittsburgh.

Ramona Moorhead Bride Of John Manning

The home of Mrs. Albert S. Moorhead of South Seventh street was the scene of a very pretty wedding Thursday morning, when her granddaughter, Miss Ramona Moorhead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Moorhead of Fisher avenue, became the bride of John Manning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manning of Emsworth.

The single-ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Stillman A. Foster, a former pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church, assisted by Dr. James K. Blackwood.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an ice blue faille suit with hat of matching straw and carried a Colonial bouquet of gardenias and rosebuds.

Miss Helen Davis of Indiana as maid-of-honor, chose a suit of navy silk with white accessories. Her bouquet was pink carnations. Robert E. Vey of Pittsburgh was best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the Thompson Tea Room, South Seventh street.

After a honeymoon spent at Eagles Mere Lake, Pocono Mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Manning will be at home to their friends at Center Avenue Apartments, 4750 Center avenue, Pittsburgh.