SHAFFER-BROOKING

Miss Edith Louise Brooking, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brooking of Pleasant Mount, became the bride of Kenneth F. Shaffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shaffer of Lakewood, at twelve o'clock noon Saturday, June 7, 1952. Rev. J. Gordon Remsden performed the ceremony at Lake Como Methodist church. Palms and azalias formed the church decoration. Phyllis Kane sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of lustrous slipper satin with sheer illusion yoke and shoulder circlet of Chantilly lace. Long tapering sleeves came to a point over the wrist. The floor-length forthingale skirt had a lace-edged hem and cascade of Chantilly lace ruffles down the front. Her fingertip veil of nylon net was topped by a pearl and rhinestone tiara. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and gypsophila. Miss Norma G. Brooking was her sister's maid of honor. She had a peach nylon net gown and carried a cascade bouquet of blue and white snapdragons and gypsophila. The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Alice Shaffer, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Joyce Smith, cousin of the bride, wore gowns of orchid and green nylon net with cascade bouquets of yellow and pink roses and gypsophila. John Hughes, cousin of the bridegroom, was bestman. Ushers were Buddy Stone and Craig Starbird. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, for sixty guests. The bride's mother and the bridegroom's mother wore sheer navy blue dresses. When Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer left for a trip to Niagara Falls and Canada, the bride wore a green and tan faille dress with white accessories and corsage of white roses. The bride, a graduate of Northern Wayne high school, has been secretary for Lake Como Lumber company. The bridegroom, a graduate of Northern Wayne high school, is engaged in farming. Upon returning from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer will reside at Lakewood.
