

The Hillsgrove Baseball Team early 1900's.

daughter of Dennis Corcoran, who was born near Quebec, Canada, and located in Forks township in 1843, on the farm now owned by John Corcoran. To Mr. and Mrs. Harrison has been born one child, Ceatus J.

J. H. VROMAN

Was born at LeRoy, Bradford county in 1852. He was a son of George and Henrietta (Bagley) Vroman, who came to Hillsgrove township when the subject of this sketch was 13 years of age. The Vromans are German descent. Mr. Vroman married Isadore Green in 1872. She was a daughter of Wheeler and Harriet (Ball) Green, and a granddaughter of Richard Green, who came from New Jersey, and located at Hillsgrove at an early date. To Mr. and Mrs. Vroman have been born four children: Hattie, died at the age of 2 years; Ernest, Wallace, Nellie, married Paul Galough, of Hillsgrove.

SAMUEL T. GALOUGH

Was born at Hillsgrove, October 22, 1873. He was a son of Jacob and Margaret (McBride) Galough, of Hillsgrove, and a grandson of Daniel and Rebecca (Sherman) Galough, of Forks township, and later of Lyscoming county. The Galoughs are German descent, and came to Forks from Huntingdon county, Pa. Mr. Galough conducts a barber shop at Hillsgrove. He married Bessie Peck, June 24, 1903. She was born at Gouldsborough, Lackawanna county, May 4, 1880. She is a daughter of Homer Peck, who holds the position of outside boss of the Hillsgrove tannery. To Mr. and Mrs. Galough has been born one child, Homer Lynn.

Known as "Doctor" Carr this itinerant peddler was often seen around Hillsgrove 1900-1910. He would stay at a customer's house overnight and would exchange goods for room and board.