

The Bridge View School in 1904 was in view of the Hillsgrove covered bridge. When the photo was taken, there weren't 50 states. The flag was given to the school on the occasion of the 45th state being admitted to the union. On close inspection of the original photo there are three rows of seven stars and three rows of eight.

The 45th state was Utah, admitted Jan. 4, 1896. Those in photo: Miss Frankford (a.k.a. Franklin) Lewis, teacher; Marion and Mildred Williams (twins), Hazel Lewis; Correll, Stanley and Guy Williams, and Ben Bryan. (Refer to Sullivan Review Nov. 7, 2002)

Miss Lewis began teaching for the Hillsgrove School District in September 1904 for $35 per month. She was co-author with Harry Greene of the booklet "Valley of Dreams and Memories, a souvenir of Hillsgrove."
